BIXBY LECTURES TO STUDENTS AT STATE COLLEGE

Professor of Irrigation Engineering Is Speaker at Assembly and Delights Large Audience With His Talk,

State: Coffege, N. M., Feb. 3,-In oursnance of Dr. George E. Ladd's plan of having a weekly general ascombly at which some member of the mentty should speak, Prof. F. L. Bixby, of the department of irrigation ngincering, delighted the students and facolty with a pleasant story of his life in California during his boypand days.

H. told of the many pleasures the mith of California might enjoy, for they have the show-capped mounmins to their east and the surging gea to their west, a cold climate in the porth and a mild tropical climate in the south. For this reason the boys of California may enjoy the sports of the younger people of the whole Unitwhich the boy is just starting to A sub-index system, similar to the one school.
